SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Edgar N. Eisenhower (1889-1971) was the older brother of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. He was raised in Abilene, Kansas, and attended the University of Michigan. After receiving his law degree he settled in Tacoma, Washington where he became an attorney.

The papers of Edgar Eisenhower consist solely of a chronological file containing his routine social correspondence from July to December 1952. Most of the correspondence is with his friends and business associates, although a few letters from the general public are included. The material pertains to his interest in golf, his trips, and the 1952 campaign. The correspondence is not complete, as scraps of paper in the file show several letters had been forcibly torn from the binding before the file was received at the Eisenhower Library.
