WOMEN IN 1959 STATE LEGISLATURES

The number of women elected to State and Territorial Legislatures now stands at an all-time high, totalling 347 for 1959 and showing an increase of 45 seats over 1958.

The new lineup shows Republicans in possession of 174 seats (a loss of 18) and Democrats holding 169 (a gain of 59).

Composition of the Legislatures follows:

Senate seats	- 17 Republicans (1 in Puerto Rico)
	20 Democrats
	2 Popular Democrats (Puerto Rico)	. . . 39

House Seats	- 157 Republicans
	149 Democrats (1 in V.I.)
	2 Popular Democrats (P. R.) 308

Total	347
