

Processed by: DAD
Date: 5/17/76

LANE

LANE, ALVIN H.

(OH-325)

49 pages

OPEN

Active in the Republican Party in Texas; counsel for pro-Eisenhower delegates from Texas to Republican national convention, 1952.

DESCRIPTION: Interview #1. Personal background. Activities in the Republican party in Texas: reason for entering politics in 1938; observations on the Texas state Republican organization, R.B. Creager, and Henry Zweifel; choice between Thomas Dewey and Robert Taft at the Republican national convention in 1948. Working for DDE in 1952: Jack Porter asking him to help with the DDE campaign; how the pro-DDE forces dominated the state Republican precinct meetings.

[Eisenhower Library Oral History Project, interview by Maclyn Burg, 1972]