

Processed by: LKS
Date: 2/12/90

McILVAINE

McILVAINE, ROBINSON (OH-405) 30 pages OPEN

Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Public Affairs, 1954-56; Counselor, American Embassy, Lisbon, 1956-59; Counsel General, Congo, 1960-61

DESCRIPTION: Early career; involvement in Eisenhower campaign; Sherman Adams; Wes Roberts; Frank Carlson; Cabot Lodge; James Duff; campaign issues; involvement in Republican politics; Caribbean Commission; State Department and Joe McCarthy; impressions and anecdotes of John Foster Dulles; impressions of Carl McCardle; James Hagerty; impressions of other Secretaries of State; responsibilities as Counselor at the American Embassy, Lisbon; U.S.-Portugal relations; Azores Base; Salazar regime; Spain; importance of NATO to Portugal; Congo; U.S. policy toward Congo; Joseph Kasavubu; Patrice Lumumba; Frank Carlucci; Andrew Steigman; and Central America.

[Eisenhower Library Oral History Project, interview by Thomas Soapes, 1978]